Special Event Policies

Rentals Policy:

Parties with over 50 guests will need additional rentals. Our event coordinators will assist in working with our preferred vendor and will coordinate all rentals, including but not limited to: additional tents, tables, chairs, plates, glassware, flatware, & linens.

Policy for Personal Decorations and Items:

All décor must be set-up during the allotted set-up hours.

No drilling, nailing, or stapling into any of the buildings on the property.

Glitter, confetti and any plastic are prohibited - Consider birdseed or flowers for any send-offs.

All decor must be cleared at the end of the event.

Parking Lot:

Our lot fits 25 - 30 cars. We cannot guarantee overflow parking.

Cars may pull up to the upper driveway to drop off and pickup guests who need assistance.

We recommend that you arrange to use shuttles, carpool, Uber or Lyft

Music & DJ :

Last song will be played at 9:30pm (no exceptions).

Music must be at a relatively low volume so as not to disturb the neighbors.

Live music must be acoustic; no amplified music.

Policy on Beer, Wine & Alcohol:

Client is to coordinate beer, wine, liquor and ice with their preferred vendor. We are unable to supply the liquor.

Wine, beer & signature cocktails only. No shots.

Alcohol must be served by a TIPS-certified bartender provided by third party bartending company.

Bar close is always 30 minutes before the end of the event.

Catering Information:

Three Leaf Catering is the exclusive caterer for Three Leaf Farm

Most events will range between $35 - $85 per person, depending on food and service choices.

Our event coordinators will assist you in creating an event that fits your vision, your taste, and your budget.

Please visit www.threeleafcatering.com for some menu samples.

Children:

Children are welcome at the farm but must be supervised at all times. Three Leaf Farm is a working farm with dangerous equipment, large animals, and a running river.
